

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ALEKSANDR KASTULIN,

Defendant.

4:13MJ3136

DETENTION ORDER

After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the court concludes the defendant must be detained pending a preliminary hearing.

There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at court proceedings and the safety of the community because there is probable cause to believe the defendant committed a felony involving failing to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250. The defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Specifically, the court finds that the defendant has a criminal record which indicates a propensity to violate orders of the court; has a propensity to harm or threaten harm to others; has failed to appear for court proceedings in the past; is currently subject to a warrant in Minnesota; and no conditions or combination of conditions are currently available which will sufficiently ameliorate the risks posed if the defendant is released.

Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
